Lagonda Car Club badge for sale on ebay

Hello readers,

You may be interested to see a Lagonda Car Club badge for sale on eBay - item number 270216152604 ending 08:37:09 GMT 08-Mar-08.

This is a lovely item to grace you car and I have attached pictures of my M45 and 16/80 which both have badges like the one for sale. I bought both of these on eBay.

These badges are not the 'original' Lagonda Car Club badge dating from the 1930's, but the ones issued when the Lagonda Car Club was revived after the war, before it merged with the 2 Litre Register in October 1951 to produce the present Lagonda Club.

I have known dealers charge really silly prices for these badges and bidding is likely to be fierce. The vendor is a well-known Lagonda Club stalwart and the provenance of the badge should be be impeccable!

If you would like one to grace your car as well, good luck

Cheers M34

Hi Folks,

Well it looks like the badge made £206.53. Someone must be happy with this rare item and perhaps we will see a photo of it mounted on someone's car in this forum!

Cheers M34
