best sources to get period picnic fitted kits?

Written by 29invicta at Apr 11, 2019 5:54 am

Does anyone have any positive experiences with finding motoring picnic kits (Drew & Sons, GW Scott & Sons, etc) outside of ebay? I'm hoping that with the warm weather we can go out for a nibble in style... Thanks!

They look attractive but to be honest when we do a picnic we use a modern cool-box for the food and an empty wicker hamper for a tablecloth, cutlery, wine glasses etc. We've got several old hampers including a Fortum & Mason's one that looks rather posh.
