hello all

a sad day out in 142 stuck on the side of the motorway after boiling over a few times .

no water in the oil so hoping its the thermostat or water pump ive removed the stat and want to replace it with a new one can anyone point me in the right direction as where to get one or an equivalent or give any other advice all will be appreciated

thanks

Hello Jay, sorry to read your news. Have you spoken with Forshaws at Aston Service Dorset? Or Chris Adams at Four Ashes Garage? Hope you find a simple fix, regards, David
