Rare 3.0 litre 2-door saloon, on eBay

A very rare 3.0 litre 2-door saloon on eBay, but in very, very poor condition. This is the second of the three cars this seller found up in Glossop, also with no engine, gearbox, steering rack, dash-board, dials etc etc

Back on again, now reduced from 2500 to 1995 pounds, and still too expensive given how rotten this car is.

At around 1000 pounds it would be a better buy, but rotten out-riggers and the engine bay stripped out, and lots and lots to do...

The car has now been sold privately to a Lagonda club member, who plans to restore it, and he is more than capable of this.

So hopefully, another one of these elegant cars will be saved.
