Lagonda Rally Schwarzwald and Alsace 2013

Written by Peter S30 at Jan 15, 2013 2:14 pm

I am organizing a Lagonda rally in the southwestern part of Schwarzwald and the Alsace. Arrival 30.5.13, two day trips, departure 2.6.13. Little roads, sightseeing, good food and wine based in a nice hotel with car parking in the court and drinks between the cars. We will be 15 to 20 Lagondas.

It is almost booked but we might have one or two places left. If interested send me a mail and I will send you the details.

Peter

Weather was perfect..the day before and after but we all enjoyed again the happy Lagonda family. All cars ran faultlessly in the rain forrest (black forrest).
