On the website it still appears to be for sale - is it sold?

David hi

You are correct, LR133 sold a little while ago for possibly highest price yet achieved in the market for a Rapide.

Currently this leaves LR153, which I believe will come up at AML Bonham's auction, best place for the car; and then LR125 which needs some work on it I am led to believe is still available.

All cars need "some work"! Even those new from the factory today...

what about 101?
