

Lagondaforum: Famous owner in his DB 3ltr Lagonda

Famous owner in his DB 3ltr Lagonda

Written by Peter S30 at Jun 27, 2014 11:00 am

Just found this nice source of film sequences www.britispathe.com. Try and search lagonda. One of the results is here:
<http://www.britispathe.com/video/duke-of-edinburgh-plays-polo/query/lagonda>

Peter

Re: Famous owner in his DB 3ltr Lagonda

Written by Colin M34 at Jun 27, 2014 2:40 pm

Hi Peter,

This car is still around and being looked after carefully by the current owner.

I met the Duke a couple of years ago but I didn't get a chance to mention the car. I'm sure he has fond memories of it. There are other newsreel shots of him delivering Prince Charles to Gordonstoun school in the car. According to various sources, Charles does not have similar fond memories of his time there!

Colin

Re: Famous owner in his DB 3ltr Lagonda

Written by yted at Jun 29, 2014 1:40 am

Fellows, can I refer you to the Club magazine #213, an article written by Tony Tostock, AML service engineer 1950 to 1963, who accompanied the Prince and the 3 litre to Australia when he opened the Olympic Games in Melbourne in 1956.

I was too young to recall, however my dad is the bloke posing a question, whilst other photos show his 2.6 saloon, the saloon he bought for his partner, and my mother's 2.6 drophead.

(It is snowing on my farm in northern NSW as I write.)

Mark.
