Wanted - LG45 starting handle escutcheon

Written by davidbracey at Jul 15, 2014 6:23 pm

Hi again. I am looking for a starting handle escutcheon for my LG45. Will accept one in almost any condition but the nicer the better. If anyone has one they would part with please get in touch.

Photo attached.

Thanks,

David

Hi David,

If you just want the cover plate the club sell repros (Part Number: BDY411).

Hi David,

Robin tells me they are out of stock and he has no idea when they will become available. So, if anyone has one that they've bought and not used please let me know.
