Lagonda on Facebook?

Written by Rich5ltr at Dec 30, 2015 10:23 pm

I don't know if many of you on here have been introduced to Facebook. For me it's the only way I get to see pictures of my grandchildren

Anyway, as well as pics of the children I thought I'd see what else is on there and I've joined a small group of enthusiast on the Lagonda Owners Group (just search for it by name). There's only a few of us there at the moment but it's a nice place to chat and share pictures.

Worth a look if you're on FB...

Indeed, Richard. By my reckoning so far the group comprises 9 Australians, 7 Brits, I Dutch lady, and one lady whose location is not given. Not bad for a couple of weeks and, IMHO, a great initiative from our members down under.

Please post the correct link here . I have searched Facebook and there are a lot of references to Lagonda but almost all to do with the late model jobs.

Hi Barry, I can see you joined the group, welcome. It's a very good way to share quick snaps of cars and stuff. Perhaps put up a picture of yours by way of introduction?

Lagondaforum is "in the wild" so any posts will be picked up by web crawlers and so anything you post here is available "for ever."

The Lagonda Facebook site is a supposedly "closed" but i'm sure that every scrap of information from punters is sold by Facebook.

So you pay your money and take your choice.
